Pastor's Perspective

Renewing Our Relationship With God

Persons sometimes ask me about re-affirming or renewing their wedding vows. From a theological perspective there's no need to renew your wedding vows unless you've died and risen from the dead. The clause in the Liturgy of Marriage ending in "so long as you both shall live" pretty much covers all other circumstances. Yet when I look at such requests from an emotional perspective I can sympathize with the desire for such a ceremony.

For some the reaffirmation of wedding vows is a way to reconnect with their younger selves and re-visit a pivotal moment in life. For others it is a chance to "get a fresh start" as they bring closure to a difficult period in their marriage. Still others wish to formalize a marriage that began with elopement or have the wedding ceremony they could not afford when they married. Finally, there are those who wish to mark a milestone of married life - a twenty-fifth or fiftieth anniversary. All are equally good reasons to celebrate one of the central relationships in a person's life.

Each September 16 Moravian clergy gather for worship on Ministers' Covenant Day. This is an opportunity for them to renew their vows of ordination - their pledge of service to God and God's Church. There is no theological reason for clergy to renew their ordination vows; there are plenty of emotional and spiritual ones. Many of the reasons clergy might wish to renew their ordination vows mirror reasons persons cite for wishing to renew their wedding vows. It is a chance to focus again on what called one into ministry, a chance to forgive and move on, or a chance to celebrate a decade or longer of faithful service to God and Church. Most of all it is an opportunity to celebrate the central relationship in each clergy person's life.

In the spirit of Ministers' Covenant Day I invite you to consider your relationship with God. Is it time for renewal or re-affirmation of your Confirmation vows? Have you reached a milestone in your life of faith that you wish to celebrate? Has your faith survived a fierce challenge? Are you struggling to make sense of your life? Perhaps it is time to find some way meaningful to you to renew your relationship with God. After all, Jesus Christ is always ready and willing to renew His relationship with you.

Health and Wellness

Walk from BETHLEHEM, PA to BETHLEHEM, ISRAEL - 5,092 miles, in just 12 weeks! The journey begins on Sunday, September 18 and we invite, in fact we encourage all of you to participate!

Participant information packets will be distributed on September 18, or you can print one out from our church website. Each packet contains age-appropriate spiritual and health information, a supply of mileage forms to use to report miles completed during the past week, and a discount coupon from Aardvark Sports Shop in downtown Bethlehem. There will be age-specific packets for the following groups: children (12 and under), teens (13 to 18), and adults (19 and over).

All ages are invited to take part, and a variety of activities can be used to generate mileage. A mileage conversion list for other activities is included in each packet. We will track our team progress on a map on the Health & Wellness Bulletin Board and report milestones regularly in church. Suggestions to make your journey comfortable, safe, and enjoyable are mentioned below.

*Everyone needs to sign up and get a participant number, so that we can properly track their miles. You can do this on September 18, or anytime by contacting Karen Davison, Kat Lehman, or Laura Kemmerer.

Rewards? There will be some special surprises for those who sign up early, and the individual with the greatest number of total equivalent miles in each age group will receive a prize. (We thank Aardvark for donating three $25 gift certificates for that purpose and a number of discount coupons. Several members of our church family are also providing gifts.) But the best reward of all is the personal benefit that each participant will receive, in both spiritual growth and physical fitness.

Here are some suggestions for our journey. Plan to walk with others - invite friends, neighbors, or family to join you, and make sure they sign up so we can benefit from their miles. Organize a walking group. Remember, everyone is invited to participate! Stretch before, during and after your activity; drink lots of water; start slowly and gradually increase pace, time, and distance. Wear appropriate clothing or gear, supportive walking shoes, helmets, lifevests, etc. Be sure to talk to your healthcare provider before beginning any new activity if you have existing health problems or need a medical OK. Stop your activity immediately if you develop any pain, cramps, or feel ill, and seek medical attention.

To help you measure your mileage, consider the following suggestions. Measure a specific distance with your car's odometer. Or time yourself (1 mile = approximately 20 minutes of moderately brisk walking, or 30 minutes of moderate walking). Or use mapmyrun.com, GPS systems on smartphones, or pedometers. Talk to Laura Kemmerer for help with walking conversions. Or time how long it takes you to walk 19 times around the perimeter of our Family Center. 19 laps = 1 mile. Turn your miles in weekly in church on Sundays, or by calling or emailing Karen Davison (610-317-0481, or karen@davison.net).
Use your activity time to focus on a special prayer concern, a thought for the day; this is a spiritual as well as a physical journey.
Make spiritual and physical exercise a part of every day – for your Health and Wellness!

COMING SEPTEMBER 18, 9:45 AM: GET READY BETHLEHEM, presented by Fallon Maggio of the Bethlehem Health Bureau. This program will provide us with information about individual or family preparedness, advising us how to create and test family communication plans, as well as home emergency kits. Information will also be presented about local emergency response organizations, for those who might be interested in getting involved. Ms. Maggio has been employed with the Bethlehem Health Bureau as a Community Health Specialist for the past 5 years, and is involved with the Bethlehem Medical Reserve Corps. Join us in Fellowship Hall for this presentation.

From the Elders

The Elders this month considered a variety of topics, including finding a church member to finish the remaining couple of months of brother Peter Diehl's term. We were saddened by Peter's departure. He will be missed. We also discussed ways to help get the congregation more involved in the stewardship of the parsonage in the event that its occupancy would take some time. Additionally we discussed church representation at the 2012 Synod. Lastly, sister Sue Kriebs, introduced The Bethlehem to Bethlehem Walking Challenge… a great way to exercise and a great way to fellowship with one another. She also promoted a new program designed to keep our pastors healthier as well.

See you in church!

Growing and Learning

Preschool News
By Mary Kay Brezinsky

It is almost time for preschool classes to begin and we are busy getting ready. The beach chairs are being cleaned off and are used in the Four Year Old Class reading area and colorful bulletin boards will decorate the hallway. We are all rested and ready to have some fun with our preschoolers this year! The first week of school begins on Monday, September 12th preceded by a Parent Orientation meeting on Tuesday evening, September 6th and a Child Orientation on Wednesday, September 7th.

We have some new faces joining us in our Preschool this year. All three of our new teachers have children who went through our program. They are excited to join our staff to help to continue to provide a high quality preschool program. Karen McLaughlin will be joining Pam Seitz in the 4 Day Four Year Old classroom. Heather Amatore will work with Kathy Bevan in our 2 Day Three Year Old Program. Jennifer Woolley will work in Creative Playgroup. Our new teachers bring with them a wealth of experience, love of preschool children, and enthusiasm. We are happy to have them join us.

We have just a few spots left in our preschool programs. We offer programs from age 2-4 years old. We would love to have you join us Learn*Play*Explore. Please call the office and come see our beautiful facility and meet our staff. The office number is 610-868-6242. I look forward to hearing from you.

Sunday evening Bible study resumes on September 18, 2011 6:00 p.m. Everyone is welcome!

Girl Scouting at East Hills Moravian Church Needs Your Help

Girl Scouting has a void in its programming a East Hills Moravian Church, namely it lacks a Junior Troop for girls in grades 4 and 5. Needed are a leader and assistants on Wednesday evenings from 5:30 to 6:30 to join the leaders of the other troops to plan and implement the program.

If you are potentially interested or want more information, please contact Sue Larson (610-737-0012 or gsmom225@aol.com) or stop on by on Wednesday, September 7th from 5:30 to 6:30 when we start up the Girl Scouting year!

Also if there are any girls Kindergarten though 5th grade who would like to join Girl Scouts our first meeting will be Wednesday, September 7th at 5:30, If you are interested or want more information, please contact Sue Larson (610-737-0012 or gsmom225@aol.com) or stop by.

The Scoutmaster's Minute,

by Jim Roberts, Scoutmaster of Troop 362

Every year Troop 362 attends Camp Minsi near Mt. Pocono for summer camp. This year there were 22 scouts attending all week, and 15 adults that stayed at camp for at least one night. The "first year" scouts work on rank advancement skills and relatively simple merit badges such as Woodcarving and Basketry, while older scouts may choose from the 50+ total merit badges offered, including Wilderness Survival, Cooking, Rifle Shooting, Small Boat Sailing, Archery, Athletics, Swimming, Environmental Science, Shotgun Shooting, Mammal Study, and Camping. Everyone enjoys a snack from the Trading Post (adults also!), and meals are served "family style" in the dining hall after a community grace, with scouts taking turns at being the waiter for their table. The troop members cook our own dinner on Thursday evening, as the kitchen staff has that night off. The weather cooperated this year, and everyone had a great time. Camp Minsi has a special "Scoutmaster Merit Badge" program for adult leaders to encourage participation; every Troop 362 adult in camp for the whole week earned their own Scoutmaster Merit Badge – the program has a total of 10 different sets of requirements for each of 10 years. In addition to rank advancement and merit badges, several scouts qualified for special awards from the various program areas. Of special note, Robert Buller, the Senior Patrol Leader qualified for the National Rifle Association Marksman Award in Shotgun --- the only scout to qualify our week. We look forward to another week at Camp Minsi next year. If you would like more information on the troop, please visit our website (http://www.troop362.com), or email me at james.roberts@lehigh.edu.

Moravian Women News

Moravian Women resume their monthly meetings beginning on Tuesday, September 6, 7:00 p.m. at the home of Janet Droney, and Wednesday, September 7, 9:30 a.m. at the church with Eva Glass as hostess. Both groups will be studying the lesson on Gentleness from last year's study book. All women of the church are invited.

If you are a young woman between the ages of 25-45 and would be interested in starting a group that would meet once a month or perhaps several times during the year to discuss topics relevant to you at this stage of your life, please contact Sue Kriebs at 610-867-5971, and she will help you get started. This new group would need someone to serve in a leadership roll, but possibly the participants could take turns researching and leading the discussions on a Sunday morning during the Sunday school hour.

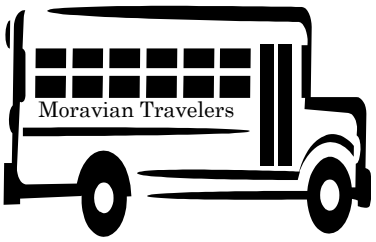
This is a reminder that the Fall Workshop will be held Saturday, September 24, 2011 at Palmer Moravian Church, 2901 John St., Easton, Pa. Continental Breakfast and lunch will be served. Registration–9a.m.; workshops, 10 a.m. Cost: $12.00 (before September 10). Late registration is $15.00. Theme: Grounded in Faith...From the Root to the Fruit. Registration forms are available in the church office or from Janet Droney.

Adult Fellowship

On Saturday, October 8, 2011, the Adult Fellowship will make a trip to Hopewell Furnace and Village National Historical Park. We will meet at the church at 8:45 am for carpooling. In addition to the iron works, iron master's house, and village, you may pick apples in their orchard (free) and hike nearby trails. Admission is free. We will leave there at 12:30 and go to nearby Pottstown and dine at a very nice restaurant known as the Brick House. Contact Bob Hauck, 610-434-8428 or Mary and Bob Stewart, 610-866-8878. Talk to us at the church as well. Please consider this outing for a day of fun, fellowship, knowledge and good food.

Why Knots

The "Why Knot" group has been busy, busy, busy. They recently delivered to St. Luke's Hospital 13 baby hats, 3 baby hats with matching blankets, 1 hooded blanket, 4 sweaters and 3 blankets for babies newborn to 36 months. For teens they delivered 4 blankets, 12 scarves, 3 hats and 1 headband. They are now working on hats and scarves for children and teens, as well as educational baby toys and wash clothes. The "Why Knot" group meets the third Wednesday of each month at 7 p.m. currently at the home of Susan Hahn. Anyone who knits, crochets, or would like to learn is welcome to join.



Contact Stan Maculesky, 610-866-1352, to inquire about or to reserve a seat on any of these upcoming trips.

Holiday Craft Faire News

Calling all Bakers—Candy Makers—Snack

Along with all the crafters at our 10th Anniversary Holiday Craft Faire on October 1, we also feature our famous Delectible Desserts Table once again! We are looking for any delectible, special baked goods that may come out of your kitchen---small cakes, pies, breads, cupcakes, candy or take-along snacks. There will be a sign up sheet on Louise's Cash Card table each Sunday morning through August and September for you to tell us what you can contribute to this popular part of the Faire! You can bring your item to church on the Friday night before the Faire or early Saturday morning. See me at church or call: Jean Skillman--610.285.2226--with any questions about our most popular items which fly off the table! A signup sheet will be also at Louise's table to volunteer to help the day of the sale.

New website address for Holiday Craft Faire:

www.easthillshcf.org

We need some folks to take signs and place them around the area and into the outlying areas. If you commute to New Jersey or Philadelphia for work, take some and place them along the way. We have crafters coming from a 4-state area so we need to get the word out!!

Many volunteers are needed for Friday evening set-up, to greet crafters as they come, to take baked goods that come in, and anything else that needs attention. Workers are also needed all day Saturday during the show, and definitely after the show for tear down and clean up. Please sign up at Louise's table on Sunday mornings or give her a call at 610-865-4118. The craft faire brings many, many visitors to our church and it's a wonderful opportunity for ministry and fellowship.

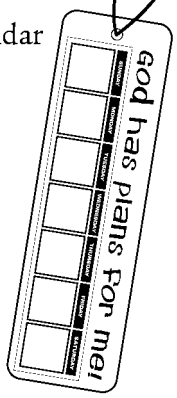
A daily reminder

Make this bookmark to remind you that God is with you every day.



What you need:

- An old calendar
- Scissors
- Cardstock
- Glue stick
- Pencil or marker
- Stickers
- Hole punch
- Ribbon or yarn

What you do:

1. Cut out the first line of squares from an old calendar, including the days of the week along the top.
2. Cut the cardstock into a rectangle a little larger than the calendar section.
3. Glue the calendar section onto the cardstock.
4. Write "God has plans for me" (Jeremiah 29:11) on the bookmark.
5. Add stickers or other decorations on the back.
6. Punch a hole on one end of the bookmark.
7. Loop some ribbon or yarn through the hole.

Sow for yourselves righteousness, reap the fruit of unfailing love …
