"Patience, An Advent Virtue"

"... the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience..."

Though St. Paul lists patience as the fourth of God's spiritual gifts, it is a virtue seldom sought or cultivated by most 21st century Americans. Rather, under the influence of a consumer culture, we have come to expect instant gratification in all aspects of life.

While shopping, we look to see if our line is shortest or whether the line one aisle over is moving a bit more quickly than the one we are in. A day or two now seems too long to wait for a DVD. Perhaps that's why Netflix and other movie services are switching to streaming video over the internet rather than mailing out DVD's or Blu-ray Discs. A person can choose his or her movie and watch it instantly.

Quick service is nice, but the most important and fulfilling aspects of life still require varying degrees of patience on our part. Neither best friends nor babies come "guaranteed overnight delivery." A relationship with either requires patience and the investment of time on our part. Most resistant to haste is the cultivation of the spiritual life and one's relationship with God.

God's time frame is not ours. The Psalmist says that for God a thousand years pass as quickly as an evening. Instant gratification exists neither in nature nor in God's dealings with humanity as they are recorded in the Bible. Grain takes a season to grow from seed to harvest. Many generations were born and died between God's promise of a Messiah in Isaiah's day until the time of Christ's birth. The Jewish kingdom itself, as well as its Babylonian and Persian conquerors, was history long before then. Patience was then, and still is required to maintain faith and hope, let alone joy and peace.

Patience does not mean resignation or inaction. Both of the latter crush hope, and that is certainly not what God desires when blessing us with the gift of patience. The spiritual gift of patience empowers persons to work actively towards fulfilling the vision of God's Kingdom come to earth, even when realization of that vision is delayed. Patience allows us to see personal trials and loss as temporary afflictions through which we must pass on the way to full realization of God's vision for us when we join God in eternal life.

During Advent, our worship services are crafted to help members cultivate the spiritual gift of patience. Those attending will hear traditional prophecies regarding the birth of a Savior, light candles marking the passing of time, and sing hymns of longing such as "O Come, O Come, Immanuel." Come Christmas, worship will remind us once again that good things come to those who wait.

Have A Blessed Christmas,

Pastor Derek

Preschool News

By Mary Kay Brezinsky

Soon after Thanksgiving, the holiday festivities will get under way, as the teachers and children begin to prepare for Christmas programs, plan for Christmas parties, and our all School Chapel Service and Lovefeast. The Chapel Service and Lovefeast will be on Tuesday, December 4th, at 9:30am in the Sanctuary. Parents, children, friends and family are invited to join the church and preschool staff for a joyous celebration of the Christmas season. Pastor Derek, Sue Diehl, Deb Worrich and some of the Sacristans of the EHMC give the gift of their time and talent to plan this unique service for our preschool family. We would love to have anyone from our EHMC family join our celebration.

Registration for EHMC Preschool 2013-2014 school year will begin for church members only the week of January 14th. The general public may begin their registration process the week of January 21st. Registration materials will be available in the church and preschool offices as of January 2nd. We offer programs for 2, 3 and 4 year old children. Please give us a call at 610-868-6242 if you have any questions.

Emergency Sheltering at East Hills – Immediate Needs

Guests of our emergency sheltering ministry begin to arrive on December 1. This effort will run continuously through March 31 (Easter Sunday) at a network of committed churches in Bethlehem.

Donations of Giant and Walmart cash cards are needed to allow us to purchase and replenish supplies, such as personal care and clothing items, food items, etc. Cash cards can be purchased from Louise Snyder and then given to Sue Larson (supply coordinator for this ministry).

Volunteers are needed, particularly women chaperones, to sleep over at the church and helpers for the chores of wake-up, breakfast and clean-up before early church on Sunday morning. We also still need a pair of Team Leaders for December 29 and March 30. Please contact Jay Larson and he will provide information on these positions and instructions on how to sign-up.

Please also recycle your recent women's magazines by bringing them to church and placing them in the box in the Narthex; these will be most appreciated by our guests.

If you are interested in learning more about this special ministry of hospitality, please contact our Site Coordinator, Jay Larson at 610-691-6334 or jwl Larson1@aol.com.

Caring for Our Church

The Trustees, and particularly the Property Committee, thank all who contribute to the upkeep of the church. We know there are people who do many things that we may not know about. Please feel free to perform acts of kindness for YOUR church, whether it be weeding a bit, picking up trash as you notice it, or bigger projects. If it is a sizable project (meaning it might take 1 hour or more) please inform Bruce Montgomery, Jim Eberly or Mike DelPriore of your intent. Finally, please help us keep the church office and narthex presentable. If you are making a donation, please contact the church office or other responsible party so that all items arrive at their intended destination. Please do not leave items without explanation in the church office.

Thank you for your help ... past and future, Bruce Montgomery, Property Chair
